GIFSCO CERTIFICATIONS

All food material whether transported or stored are categorized into three separate ranges as:

1. Dry Stock 2. Chilled Stock 3. Frozen Stock

The temperatures of each type vary and these levels are well under consideration and control during transportation and stocking.

When it comes to purchasing we deal only with food supply importers, main suppliers and registered stockists to take the advantage of acquiring fresh stock, longer shelf life and of course better pricing too.

All vehicles are constantly inspected for cleanliness, sanitation, control and equipment fitness on a regular basis to avoid food contamination or deterioration due to unhealthy maintenance of the interiors. This also applies to the storage facilities that hold the stock for a period of time. The in-house food inspection team also keeps a close watch on items with critical expiry periods.

GIFSCO is delighted to Offer many options in accommodation leases service in a wide variety of sizes, locations, and which we are sure to accommodate your requirement, and budget. GIFSCO offer short and long-term service agreements (i.e. fully furnished or unfurnished apartments and villas).
